

Take a Stand on Ethical Questions:

Directions: Using scenarios listed below, have students indicate if they would answer the following questions with a yes or a no. After activity is complete, discuss consequences of each scenario.

1. It's ok to work on homework together in study hall.
2. It's ok to download music from the internet.
3. It's ok to pay for a PG-13 movie and then go into an R rated one.
4. It's ok to take a few dollars from my parents wallet.
5. It's ok to borrow my best friend's car without asking.
6. It's ok to buy a kids meal when I'm in high school.
7. It's ok to pull up my email at work if I'm not busy.
8. It's ok to answer a personal phone call at work.
9. It's ok to do school work on the job when I'm not busy.
10. It's ok to take home leftovers in a restaurant if I work there.
11. It's ok to go into my friends computer account if they've given me the password.
12. It's ok to go into another locker to get some aspirin or a pencil.
13. It's ok to drink alcohol if my parents give it to me.
14. It's ok to keep the extra money if a cashier gives me too much change back.
15. It's ok to take pop or snacks into a movie theatre.

Activity designed by:

Suzy Ries, Julie Bell, Cindy Gerlach, and Ellen Hohbach. (June 20008)